Conflict-of-Interest Form

Authors are required to disclose any possible conflict of interest. These include financial issues (for example patent, ownership, stock ownership, consultancies, speaker's fee). Applied Linguistics Research Journal requires that sources of institutional, private and corporate financial support for the work within the manuscript must be fully acknowledged, and any potential conflicts of interest noted. The corresponding author signs this form on behalf of all other authors and confirms its validity. The corresponding author also declares that the work is an original composition by the author(s); it has not been previously published; it is not presently under consideration for publication elsewhere. All materials in this publication are copyrighted by the publisher, KARE in Turkey.
